News of Sapulpa

Mayor Bone Dies.—J. Wade Bone, mayor of Sapulpa, died at 3:10 a. m. Wednesday morning from Bright's disease after less than an hour's illness. The mayor had been ill for several months before his death but recently returned from an extended vacation apparently much improved. He had been in his office all of Tuesday morning and had gone to Tulsa Tuesday afternoon.

Filling Station Robbed.—R. E. Kelso, proprietor of the Kelso filling station here was held up and robbed of $266 in the office of his station Tuesday night by two masked men just as he was getting ready to close the place for the night. The bandits waited for him in the front office while he was in the rear looking the doors and forced him to put up his hands while they rifled the safe and cash drawer and searched him for valuables. After obtaining the money, the robbers forced Kelso to leave the building and go for nearly a block in rear of several store buildings to an alley leading to Twenty avenue. After waiting him to leave, the robbers returned and looted the building and the police have little hope of apprehending them.

Organize Ball Club.—The Sapulpa baseball association was organized Tuesday night at the chamber of commerce rooms for the purpose of taking over the franchise of the Sapulpa Western League team. The association is composed entirely of local stockholders and a new manager will be selected shortly to take the place of Jerry Jones who is the present owner of the team. The following officers of the new association were elected: Vance Likely, president; Westley D. Berry, vice president; Ed Elden, secretary; and J. D. Berry, treasurer.

Many Tourists.—An average of seven tourist parties a day make use of the auto tour set camping ground, according to a report made today covering the first month of its activity. The grounds were fitted up by the Kiwanis club here at a cost of $3,000.

Indian Improvements.—Restricted Indians under government control were allowed to spend $562,782 on improvements during the first six months of 1921, according to R. J. Burke, chief field agent here. This includes 150 new homes and 68 barns, new fences, wells and other changes. One allowance went to Jennetta Burgess, Creek Indian near Konawa, who has just completed a new house and barn, garage, electric and water plant at a cost of $25,000. Many player pianos are included in the allowances while others are buying phonographs and regular pianos, the latter for the young students who learned music at school. Running water, fine bathtubs, electric lighting systems and other modern appliances are by no means uncommon on many Indian farms, it is said.

Kiwanians Convene.—About 50 or 60 Muskogee Kiwanians will attend the district convention at San Antonio next month. It was said at the luncheon today. Drum corps and other accompaniments will make the trip a lively one.

H. C. Ferris Dead.—News of the death of H. C. Ferris, formerly secretary for the K. & G. railroad here, was received here today. He died in El Paso, Texas, two hours after an operation for appendicitis. He was 54 years of age and was survived by a wife.

Mr. Ferris resided here from 1914 until last fall, when he was relieved of the responsibility. He was heavily interested in Mexican development and was in charge of a railroad mining company at the time of his death. He will be buried in Cleveland, Ohio, his former home.

Nipponese Empire Will Take Part in Parley Over Disarmament

WASHINGTON, July 27.—Japan has accepted President Harding's invitation to participate in a disarmament conference at Geneva, Switzerland, on condition that there shall be a discussion of the agenda of the conference preliminary to the parley. It was announced at the state department today.

It was stated officially that the reply of Japan is very gratifying to the United States and that this government is confident that the preliminary work of the conference will be carried forward successfully and quickly.

Secretary of State Hughes in a communication to Japan had stated that this government did not feel that Japan should be required to accept the preliminary work of the conference as a condition of its participation in the conference.

The text of the note follows: "The Japanese government has taken note of the contents of the American memorandum of July 23 received through the American charge d'affaires in reply to the Japanese memorandum of July 13 on the subject of a conference on the limitation of armaments to be held at Washington."

"It has been brought to the knowledge of the Japanese government that the government of the United States is willing to proceed with exchanges of opinion regarding the agenda prior to the meeting of the conference and that it considers it advisable to adjust in that agenda the nature and scope of the Pacific and far eastern questions to be discussed at the proposed conference. The Japanese government is happy to be able to inform the American government that it is its intention to gladly accept an invitation for a conference which shall embrace the discussion of the Pacific and far eastern questions."

"The Japanese government has been made aware through the communications and the published statement of the American government and the conversations between the secretary of state and Baron Shidehara that the disposition of the American government to discuss the Pacific and far eastern problems is."

based on the close hearing they have on the question of limitation of armaments which is the original and principal aim of the conference and that, therefore, the main object of discussing these problems is to reach a common understanding in regard to the general principles and policies in the Pacific and the far east.

"Hoping, as they do, to contribute to the establishment of an enduring peace and the advancement of human welfare, the Japanese government earnestly hopes that the proposed conference may attain the expected results and that peace may thereby be brought nearer to realization."

"In order to insure the successful conference, the Japanese government deems it advisable that the agenda of the conference should be arranged in accordance with the main objects of the discussion as above defined, and that the nature and scope of the problems to be discussed should be adjusted to the particular powers of such matters that may be regarded as accomplished facts should be scrupulously avoided."

The Villagers Take Youth's Swimmin' Hole

NEW YORK, July 27.—Greenwich village has brought forth another innovation, the street-swimming party.

Several hundred adult villagers equipped last night with deck chairs and blankets, gathered around a swimming pool in the middle of West Fourth street, the pool, six feet wide, 14 feet long and 5 feet deep, was built by Green under a hot weather order by Fire Chief Kenyon.

NEGLECT IS CHARGED

Humane Society Seeks to Take Charge of Three Children of Police Officer and Wife

Neglect of their children is the charge preferred against Mr. and Mrs. John Jones of West Tulsa by the Humane society, which is seeking to take the children from the parents and have them placed where they will be cared for. The case was brought up before Judge Holt yesterday and deferred over until Friday in order that the district attorney have an attorney to represent them.

The children were found by Mrs. Victoria Trotter, who says that they were allowed to play in the house alone for long periods of time, were not properly clothed and suffered from neglect. The children, a boy, a girl and a half-year-old child, were found in the house at one time recently, the boy and girl were alone in the house and the half-year-old child was found in the house.

Tulsa Told Her He Was Not a Rotarian But She Thought His Remarks Gave Him Away

C. E. Hatcher, who returned this week from the International Rotary convention at Edinburgh, Scotland, tells an amusing yarn allegedly at the expense of Mrs. E. Davis, another Tulsa, who is traveling over Europe and who claimed to meet up with the local delegates after the convention. Davis had been to Edinburgh about two weeks after the Rotarians left that city. He is not a Rotarian. The story at least has a familiar American flavor, it is said.

When Davis reached Edinburgh he also found this cigar store. Upon the occasion of his first visit there ensued a conversation similar to the following:

"Clear girl, 'Are you English?'" Davis: "No, American."

"Clear girl, 'Oh, you're one of those Rotarians.'" Davis: "No, I'm not a Rotarian."

"Clear girl, 'Well, you look like them.'" Davis: "Absolutely I'm not. But say, what you got on tonight after you close the store?"
